Finding Joy

Room 212

Donna DeMattia & Bev White

Women

For some women, joy can seem like an elusive emotion but as Christians we can experience JOY. In this Women of Faith based study, discover a way to get to know yourself and other women better, and God's secret to an inexpressible and glorious joy as found in 1 Peter 1:8.

Found in Translation

A Bilingual study of the weekly texts

Room 122

David & Ruth Hall

Co-Ed

Do you desire to have fellowship with the Spanish speaking community in our parish? Bilingual persons will be encouraged and taught a structured process to lead bilingual fellowship and Bible Study. Using the weekly lectionary, and branching into other scripture as the Spirit may lead, the class will develop and promote a uniform process for using translation as a tool and also a structured scripture study. It is NOT NECESSARY TO BE BI-LINGUAL to participate.

The 500th -

Examining and Celebrating the Three "Sola's" of the Lutheran Reformation

Room 209

Pastor John Bromhal, John Dukes, Steve Shumate

Co-Ed

This October 31st marks the 500th anniversary of the protestant reformation. We will be studying and asking how these three sola statements (Sola Scriptura, Sola Fide, Sola Gratia: Word Alone, Faith Alone, Grace Alone) from the protestant reformation impact and can still apply to our lives today.

Life's Healing Choices
Room 117 Main Office
Mike & Cherri Warren

Co-Ed

We've all experienced hurt by other people, we've hurt ourselves, and we've hurt others. As a result, every single one of us ends up with some sort of hurt, hang-up or habit. We've all learned methods of coping with life that once worked for us, but don't seem to work anymore. By learning to apply 8 recovery principles found in the Beatitudes, this class will help you find God's pathway to wholeness, growth, spiritual maturity, happiness & healing, as we learn how to release past hurts, apply God's truth to everyday decision making, and build a healthy foundation for lasting change.

Conversations
